CAROLINA BANKERS

Ninth Annual Convention Convened at Wrightsville Beach Last Night.

LARGEST ATTENDANCE EVER

Guests Being Royally Received by Wilmington People—Formally Welcomed Last Night—Delightful Trip Today.

With the largest attendance in the history of the organization the ninth annual convention of the South Carolina Bankers' Association convened in the assembly hall of the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, at 10:30 o'clock last night.

Delegates are here from practically every town and city of any importance in South Carolina, besides a large number of visiting financiers from points in North Carolina and other States. There are more than 300 bankers and members of their families here for the sessions of the convention and the several delightful social features arranged in their honor and their sojourn in Wilmington and at the beach will be pleasant as well as profitable.

Owing to the fact that the "Bankers' Special" from Columbia arrived about an hour late and the further fact that the accommodations at the Seashore were taxed, making it necessary to assign many of the visitors to the Tarrymoore, the convention was an hour and a half late in meeting. A pleasant incident at Florence, S. C., was partly responsible for the delay of the special train. A committee of the citizens of Florence met the train there with automobiles and carriages and conveyed the members of the party, numbering 216, 192 bankers and 24 ladies, to the club, where lunch and refreshments were served.

The Nixon Orchestra, which is regularly engaged at the Seashore, discussed several delightful selections while the members were assembling in the convention room. Immediately after calling the convention to order President Stackhouse asked the audience to rise while the invocation was offered by Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, who invoked the divine blessing upon the assemblage.

Address of Welcome.

In the absence of Mr. William Calder, president of the Wilmington Clearing House Association, who was kept away on account of illness, the address of welcome was delivered by Mr. C. N. Evans, Cashier of the Southern National Bank and one of the prominent bankers in North Carolina, who addressed the distinguished body in his usual happy manner, bidding them a sincere and hearty welcome to Wilmington and the beach and assuring them that it is a pleasure for the local bankers to entertain them. He was particularly glad that so many of the financiers were accompanied by their wives and sweethearts which insures to the visitors a more enjoyable time socially. After giving a brief history of Wrightsville Beach and of the many improvements that have been made there in the past few years and a reference to the widespread popularity of the resort, with a few humorous remarks, Mr. Evans said: "We would again bid you welcome, and it is needless for me to speak to a South Carolina audience of the hospitality of the North Carolinians and of the Wilmingtonian in particular. They say, old friends are truest, and that age adds a flavor to wine, therefore in assuring you of the hospitality of Wilmington, we can with pride refer to a city, the distinguished lineage of which has been the foundation of aris-

RETAIL MERCHANTS ACTIVE

Day Large[illegible] voted to Hearing Reports—Le[illegible]ve and Transportation Ma[illegible] Freight Rate Discrimin[illegible] Banquet.

(Special Star [illegible]m.)

Elizabeth City, N. C., [illegible]16.—The second day of the Retail [illegible]erchants' Association of North Carolina was devoted principally to hearing reports of local associations and committees. Each report was received with marked applause and showed the association to be in prosperous condition. It is a significant fact that each delegate in making report protested against unjust and discriminatory freight rates imposed upon North Carolina Judging by these reports it is evident that every merchant is going to wage a more active campaign than ever to secure redress from this condition. The lack of business laws for the protection of commercial interest is also the subject of much comment. It is a safe prediction that Merchants' Association with the co-operation of organizations effected by lack of business legislation will have some very pertinent questions to ask candidates for nomination and election to the next General Assembly.

Chairman J. N. McCausland, of the Transportation Committee, discussed exhaustively freight rate conditions in the State, declaring the rankest discrimination exists and reviewing the recent suit brought to correct the evils and efforts before the Legislature to bring about a water rate for the State through Wilmington. The committee is of the opinion that if the North Carolina Corporation Commission would take the proper interest in the equalization of freight rates from North Carolina seaports to points in the interior and work diligently, it could eventually bring about the desired results. The only hope is through education, agitation and publicity. The committee urges that members see to it that only such men are elected on the Corporation Commission as will take an active interest in the equalization of rates in the State.

This afternoon the Association witnessed an exhibition game of ball between Elizabeth City and Hertford and tonight Robert N. Simms, of Raleigh, made a fine address on the "Best Way to Secure Legislation." recommending the appointment of a legislative committee to serve the next three years. After the close of the night session a brilliant and enjoyable banquet was served in the Southern Hotel, which was beautifully decorated at which a number of toasts were responded to.

YELLOW PINE CASES SETTLED.

Railroads and Lumber Shippers Have Compromised.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 16.—Through counsel of the railroads and the attorneys representing the claimants, 179 of what are popularly known as the yellow pine reparation cases were adjusted today on the same basis as the Miller and Green settlement of March 18 last, which was 67 per cent. of the provable shipments. The amount involved will approximate $200,000.

Originally there were 552 of the yellow pine cases, involving claims of shippers against various Southern railroads for reparation in the sum of two cents on every 100 pounds of yellow pine lumber shipped during the period when the roads charged 16 cents a 100 pounds. All of them except 140 now have been adjusted, through compromise. The remaining cases, all of which are what is known as central yellow pine territory—Louisiana, Mississippi and Western Alabama—undoubtedly will be settled in a few weeks. By consent of the railroads and of the claimants, the cases have been postponed by the Inter-State Commerce Commission until September 15. It is expected that compromise in them will be reached long before that date.

The cases settled today are those remaining from previous settlements in the Southeastern territory, North Carolina, Georgia, Eastern Alabama, South Carolina and Florida.

CHARGED WITH STEALING GEMS.

Trial of Prominent Atlanta Woman Postponed.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Newark, N. J., June 16.—The trial of Mrs. Francis J. Ridley, of Atlanta, Ga., on a charge of the larceny of $2,000 worth of jewelry belonging to Mrs. Andrew Albright, of New York, was indefinitely postponed today following a prolonged conference between the prosecuting authorities and Congressman Richardson, of Alabama, and United States Attorney William H. Ambricht, also of Alabama. Congressman Richardson and Mr. Ambrecht had come to testify to the good character and standing of Mrs. Ridley and had brought depositions of a similar nature from numerous prominent Atlanta people and officials of several Southern States.

Mrs. Ridley and her friends insisted on immediate trial and expressed indignation when they could get no satisfaction as to when the case would be taken up, the local authorities declaring that no judge was available to try it.

Mrs. Ridley was accused of taking a satchel containing the jewelry while she and Mrs. Albright were fellow passengers on a train from the South en route to New York, March 19th, last.

TAFT'S TAX MESSAGE

Recommends Two Per Cent Levy on Incomes ot Corporations.

WOULD AID SUPERVISION

Income Tax Unconstitutional But Amendment to Constitution Will Make It Legal—Corporation Tax Will Yield $25,000,000.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 16.—Recommending legislation looking to the placing of a 2 per cent. tax on the net income of corporations and also the adoption of an amendment to the constitution providing for the imposition of an income tax without an apportionment among the several States, President Taft today sent to Congress a message embodying his views on the subject. This action followed a protracted special meeting of the cabinet.

In his message the President speaks of the apparent inability of Congress to agree to an inheritance tax, and as regards an income tax he refers to the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Pollock vs. the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, in which the court held the tax to be unconstitutional unless apportioned according to population. "It is," said the President, "undoubtedly a power which the government ought to have. It might be indispensable to the nation's life in great crisis."

The amendment, therefore, he declares, was the only proper course. Such an amendment to the constitution, he contended, was preferable to the one proposed of reviving a law judicially declared to be unconstitutional.

The amendment which he proposes should be made to the tariff bill provides for the imposition upon all corporation and joint stock companies for profit, except national banks (otherwise taxed), savings banks, and building and loan associations, of an excise tax of 2 per cent. on the net income of said corporations. This, it is estimated by him, will bring an annual revenue of $25,000,000. "This is a tax on privilege and not on property," he says, "and is within the Federal power without apportionment according to population."

The President points out that another merit to the tax on corporations is the Federal supervision which will give to the government, the stockholders and the public knowledge of the real business transactions, and the gains and profits of every corporation in the country. The adoption of the amendment, he says, will make a long step "toward that supervisory control of corporations which may prevent a further abuse of power."

The message concludes: "I recommend, then, first, the adoption of a point resolution by two-thirds of both houses, proposing to the States an amendment to the constitution granting to the Federal government the right to levy and collect an income tax without apportionment among the States according to population; and, second, the enactment, as part of the pending revenue measure, either as a substitute for, or in addition to, the inheritance tax, of an excise tax upon all corporations, measured by two per cent. of their net income."

The message was referred to the finance committee.

Will Oppose President.

Washington, June 16.—Five "Progressive Republican" Senators, Messrs. Borah, Bristow, Cummins, LaFollette and Clapp conferred tonight to determine what their attitude is to be in relation to the income tax amendment to the tariff bill, in the face of President Taft's special message to Congress today favoring the submission of the question to the Senate for constitutional amendment and the enactment of a law taxing the net earnings of corporations.

They decided that the President's plan is not inconsistent with their demands for the adoption of an amendment taxing incomes and that both may be adopted in harmony. They assume that the President's plan, endorsed by leading Republicans on the finance committee is designed to "chloroform" the income tax amendment but nevertheless announce that they will continue to fight for its adoption.

BOOKER WASHINGTON'S TOUR.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., June 16.—Booker T. Washington, the negro educator, carrying out the plans of the late H. H. Rogers, will on Monday next begin a tour of the Virginian Railway speaking and investigating the conditions of the negro race along that system from Norfolk to Deepwater, W. Va., a distance of over 400 miles. Dr. Washington will travel by special train provided by the Virginian Railway consisting of engine, buffet and living cars. He will speak to white people in Norfolk and next to negroes at Pine Beach, who will tender a banquet there.

CORPORATIONS TAX

President Taft's Message Read in Full Senate Yesterday.

LAYS TARIFF BILL IN SHADE

President Recommends Tax on Earnings of Corporations and Urges Amendment to the United States Constitution.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 16.—The message of President Taft recommending the incorporation of a provision in the tariff bill for the taxation of the earnings of corporations and the adoption of a resolution looking to an amendment of the constitution so as to permit the levying of an income tax without interference from the courts, which was received by the Senate today, was generally regarded by Senators as of such transcendent importance as to place in the shade all questions pertaining strictly to the schedules of the tariff bill. The message was received early in the afternoon and after brief discussion on the method of proceeding was referred to the committee on finance.

Senator Root occupied the chair when one of the President's secretaries appeared with the message in hand, but owing to the fact that Senator Burton was at the time engaged in making a speech, the presentation of the message was delayed for some time.

When Mr. Burton concluded, but not until after Mr. Heyburn had addressed the chair to proceed with the discussion of the tariff bill, the message was read. There was a full Senate present and the document was awarded the most careful attention from all Senators.

Senator Gore attempted to have the committee instructed to report on the income tax feature of the message by next Friday when, under general agreement the income tax question is again to be taken up for consideration. His motion was, however, voted down and for the first time in many weeks the division was strictly along party lines, all the Republicans voting to lay on the table while all the Democrats cast their votes against that proposition.

During the informal discussion of the reference of the message, Senator Bailey gave notice that he would demand that provision be made for a graduation of any income tax that might be provided for and intimated that much time would be necessary to get through a provision which did not carry that qualification.

After considerable more debate, the Senate adopted the finance committee's recommendations regarding the admission of Philippine products but not until after two or three amendments had been voted down. Senator Foster, of Louisiana, occupied the early hours of the day with a speech opposing the free admission of any Philippine sugar into the United States. He took the position that with the encouragement that would be given by allowing 300,000 tons of the Philippine product to come in free of duty, the production in the islands would be so rapidly increased that it would soon exceed the quantity named.

During the day Senator Aldrich presented the finance committee's substitute for the House zinc schedule and it received a major portion of the attention of the Senate during the afternoon. The committee amendment provided for a graduated scale of duty on the zinc in zinc ore in place of the fixed rate of the House bill.

Senator Burton spoke against any duty on zinc ore, while Senators Heyburn, Guggenheim and others advocated even a stiffer rate than was proposed by the committee.

All of the finance committee's recommendations in the zinc schedule were ultimately agreed to and the paragraph as amended was finally adjusted.

The committee's suggestion for changes in the silk schedule were also adopted. A number of other committee amendments of a minor character were presented just before adjournment, and some of them were acted upon.

By a vote of 26 to 43 the Senate rejected an amendment by Mr. Fletcher of Florida providing that imports from the Philippines into the United States shall pay the same duties as imports from other countries except as now provided by law.

At 7:05 the Senate adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow.

In an effort to select the third arbitrator in the Georgia Railway controversy, Hilary A. Herbert and Representative Hardwick, of Georgia, will hold another conference in Washington today. Their meeting yesterday did not result in a choice. If they are unable to agree by Saturday the board of mediation appointed under the Erdman Act, will name the third party.

ATTEMPTED CRIMINAL ASSAULT

Fiendish Attack by Negro on White Girl in Raleigh—Want to Raise Telephone Rates in Wilmington and Asheville.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 16.—Daniel Lucas, a negro, 22 years old, was committed to jail at 6 o'clock this evening charged with an attempt to criminally outrage Miss Curtice, the 16-year-old daughter of Dr. Cooper Curtice, a veterinary surgeon, this morning. The girl identified the negro.

The attempt was in a suburban footpath as the girl and a companion, six years old, were going from the Curtice home on West Hargett street to the A. & M. College dairy for cream. The negro sprang from a clump of bushes, seized the girl and attempted to drag her into the woods. He slapped her in the face for screaming, but was frightened away by the approach of W. G. Grant, who lived near by. Dr. Curtice is in Alabama on professional business.

There came to the Corporation Commission today applications from the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co., for the commission to approve advances in the rates for residence service in Wilmington and Asheville that will bring the rates in these cities up to the schedule in force in Charlotte, Raleigh and other principal towns in the State. These rates are scaled on the basis of the number of subscribers and the character of the service. The Commission sets June 25th for hearing the applications.

The Saxony Spinning Co., Lincolnton, with $100,000 capital is chartered for a general cotton milling business. Other charters are to the Fuquay Bank, of Fuquay Springs, Wake county, capital $7,500; The Azalea Woodworking Co., Asheville, capital $50,000, and the Ed. N. Penny Co., Wilmington, general merchandise, capital $50,000 by Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Penny and C. H. Thompson.

ARTILLERY MANEUVERS.

Encampment at Caswell Comes to an End Today—Fine Showing.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fort Caswell, N. C., June 16.—Subcalibre target practice was completed yesterday forenoon and the results were very satisfactory in all batteries, and shows well for the work of the State troops, many of whom never before saw anything bigger than a 12-guage quail gun. It is very gratifying to know that in case of war with a foreign power that a large and efficient army could be brought into the service of their country in a matter of a few hours, fully equipped, well trained, and knowing that what they had to do was done by them before in times of peace.

The weather man, after behaving well during the entire period of encampment, must have went visiting yesterday and left the children at home, for it was evident that someone pulled the wrong lever and let the tank come pouring right down on Fort Caswell and turned on a little electric phenomena with it, for such a storm is seldom seen here. No great amount of damage was done, however, outside the Y. M. C. A. field tent, which was blown down and the reading matter badly damaged. The Paymaster visited the post yesterday and all the troops, regulars and militia, received their pay. A lecture was given yesterday to the reserves on power and communications and their use in coast defense. Service practice is being carried on today and judging from shots fired at this writing, an excellent record will be made in this as well as in sub-calibre practice. The State troops break camp in the morning and leave about 9 o'clock for their homes with the good wishes of the entire garrison. The Wilmington boys did their firing this afternoon from the 8-inch guns.

CHARLES W. MORSE GIVES BOND

Effort to Save Him From 15 Years Sentence.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 16.—Charles W. Morse, the former banker and promoter of huge enterprises, today won his long fight for release from prison under bail. He was immediately released by order of the United States Circuit Court after bonds signed by 25 of his friends giving $125,000 in security were tendered to the court. Morse's appeal for a new trial is still pending, the court today reserving decision on that point. His release came largely through the activity of friends who petitions the court in May saying that they believed in his innocence and were ready to become responsible upon a bail bond for an indefinite sum. The signers included Frank A. Munsey, Augustus VanWyck, John D. Crimmins, Oakleigh Thorne, and other prominent New York bankers and business men.

Morse was convicted of having misappropriated the funds of his former chief bank, the National Bank of North America, in financial operations, which led to his being thrown into bankruptcy early in 1908. He was sentenced to 15 years in the Federal prison in Atlanta, Ga. Since this convention he has been in the Tombs. Attempts to have him admitted to bail have extended over a period of seven months.

Goldsboro, N. C., June 16.—The first game of the double-header here today resulted in a victory for the home team by a score of 4 to 1, Otis getting the honors over his opponent Wysong. Only four safeties were gotten off Otis while he struck out 12 of the Sailor boys. "Dick" Smith cut off "Kid" Smith's second hit by a pretty one-hand stab in the third. Jayes made a pretty catch of Stubbe's line drive and "Kid" Smith's three-bagger to left, his first time at bat were the features.

The second game proved a regular swatfest for the hardy Sailors, who recovered quickly from the wreck of the first game, all this being at the expense of Mr. Deviney, slabman for the locals. Wilmington easily put two men across the slab in the second on the batting combination of Conn, Nichols, Brodie, Smith and Levy, Goldsboro being unable to return the compliment in her half of the same.

In the second a bunch of five hits, four of them for two bases, a pass and an error of Deviney netted six more runs to the crew of the Mary Jane and the Giants abandoned all hope. Sharp led off with a two-base hit to centre and got third on a passed ball; Kite drawing a pass in the meantime; Jayes drove a hot one to pitcher, who fumbled, and Sharp scored, Kite going to third; Sexton dropped one into right garden for two sacks and Kite and Jayes scored; Conn sacrificed Sexton and Nichols swatted another to left for two bases, scoring Sexton; Brodie went out, second to first and then Capt. "Dick" with his little willow, popped one down into left for a couple of bases, scoring Nichols; Levy then singled to centre, scoring Smith, but was forced at second by Sharp. Crockett singled to right for Goldsboro and stole second and got third on passed ball while Doak, Seal and Zanelli fanned at Sexton's winning deceptions.

Both teams were out in order in the third and in the fourth after Gettig had singled to centre, Sexton fanned Steinbach and Crockett in succession and retired Doak from second to first. Conn and Nichols led Wilmington's fourth with singles to left, but Conn was caught at home on Brodie's hit to second and Brodie himself was out on a pretty double, Smith retiring the side by fouling out to first. Both teams were out in order in the fifth but in Goldsboro's sixth after Deviney flew out to centre, "Kid" Smith hit to left for two bases and then after Gettig was out second to first, scored on Steinbach's drive to left for a double.

DR. J. P. CALDWELL.

Erskine College on Tuesday conferred the degree of LL. D. upon Editor J. P. Caldwell, of the Charlotte Observer. Mr. Caldwell will easily wear the honor, and to say anything about the modesty with which he will wear it would be superfluous. Degrees are intended as a recognition of attainments and achievements that merit their bestowal. Eminence wins these degrees, and certainly that one conferred upon the Observer's "Old Man" naturally gravitated to a shining mark.

Dr. Caldwell as editor and newspaper maker, has conferred a lasting benefit upon North Carolina in the splendid newspaper which he has founded in one of the State's principal cities. Its quality and standard are recognized throughout the South and North, and its editor easily ranks everywhere as one of the South's foremost journalists. He was always a good thinker and his fine discrimination and good judgment in his editorial work are preeminent features. We have never known him to fly off the nut, paw the air, or get off the trolley, but he has always been calm, dispassionate, judicious and fair as an editorial producer. Some might think him too conservative at times but it is only the work of the level head and good balance that he has invariably carried around with him. He looks questions fair in the face, he honestly dissects them, and that has kept him from flying off at a tangent, so to speak. This is doubtless why the productions from his pen have carried weight and won him reputation among the trustworthy commentators upon men, events and public questions. To all his journalistic qualities he adds fearlessness when it comes time to speak out plainly, and his paragraphs shift easily from lively to severe, drifting at times into humor that is keen or bubbling as he sees fit to turn it. Editor Caldwell has a keen insight into questions and things, and his utterances in print show that he is well equipped in his line of business.

We haven't gone out of our way to make this all but too brief mention of Editor Caldwell, but Erskine College has furnished the opportunity by what it has done to him. Dr. Caldwell has been out of his editorial chair for several months on account of some paralytic trouble, but here goes the earnest wish that he may soon be in commission again, as was recently intimated in the Observer.

Editor Caldwell always knew how to pick out geniuses and train adepts, and luckily while he was laid on the shelf, the editorial columns have been taken care of most of the time by his associate editor, Mr. Theodore Klutz, Jr. It is only just to say that while "The Chief" has been sorely missed, the reputation of the editorial page of the Observer has been well sustained.

DESIRABLE COMMUNITIES.

We take our hat off to School District No. 8, Grandtham township, Wayne county. A few days ago the citizens voted on the question of a special tax to maintain the schools and the proposition carried unanimously in favor of the tax. There was not one dissenting vote. We quite agree with the Mount Olive Tribune when it makes this comment:

"This speaks well for the good people of that section, for it is indeed a rare case for an election of this nature to carry without one dissenting vote. It shows their great interest in securing better educational facilities and the result of Wednesday's election will prove a benediction and blessing to this and future generations. The people of the district are going to have a nice new school building, and will eventually have one of the best schools in the State."

The election in Grantham township clearly indicates the public spirit of the people and naturally it indicates that the community is one where a man need not fear to locate with his family. We have known people to move away from a community because there was no school for their children. They moved to other communities where the advantages were greater.

It is singular that people in some sections cannot realize the importance and advantages of schools for the enlightenment of their children, but some communities would prefer to do without schools than to levy upon themselves a tax for which they get the benefit in the education and uplift of their children. Yet in Districts Nos. 2 and 3, in New Hope township, Wayne county, on the same Wednesday, the school tax proposition was lost by large majorities. A man intending to move into Wayne county, would go to District No. 8, Grantham township, than to take his family to the other two districts. Wouldn't you?

Note the impression which District No. 8 makes in contrast with the delinquent districts. The people should make their communities desirable unless they are content to take a back seat and keep it.

DIVERSIFY OUR INDUSTRIES.

The Winston Republican announces that Winston-Salem has a new industry, just established by the Charles M. Phelps oCmpany. It is a factory for the manufacture of suspenders and supporters, for which there is a world-wide demand. It is stated that as suspenders and supporters are necessaries in all countries, there is every opportunity for the success of Winston-Salem's new factory.

The Star has often urged a diversification of our manufacturing industries, as well as of our agriculture, and it is gratifying to note that our people are casting about for something out of the ordinary in the way of manufactures. There are a lot of commodities that it will pay to manufacture in this State if our people will only put on their thinking caps. Many paying manufacturing enterprises can be started on small capital, and it is the aggregate of such manufactories that help to make a community prosperous. It gives employment to different classes of the popoulation, and especially affords opportunities to girls and boys.

Senator LaFollette has spoken every day for ten days, and has completely exhausted himself in making earnest arguments to Senator Aldrich and his accomplices in order to prevail upon them to reduce the tariff. We don't know whether LaFollette belongs to some Sunday School or not but if he has run out of arguments and patience it would appear that the discussion has arrived at the cussing stage.

Once more, dear friends, the bald-headed man has a right to complain of the inequality of the distribution of hair, and that is how we feel towards a tariff that protects more industries in one section than it does in another. Will Senator Tillman's "buccaneers" please diversify the benefits.

"Democrats, get together" advises an exchange. Gee! Don't get 'em together now, for they would have to sit with closed doors till they amicably or otherwise settle their differences. That editor's advice during the hot spell is ill-advised, or else he just simply likes to see fun going on.

"Why in the name of Emerson should a Boston man spit?" inquires the Philadelphia Inquirer. Why-er, it's because he bites off more than he can chew when he attempts to chew the rag with the average bean fed suffragettes who infest Boston.

Governor Kitchin has appointed a dozen or so North Carolinians as delegates to the Irrigation Congress to be held at Spokane, August 9th. As they will go from dry territory they will all probably be in favor of irrigation when they are in Spokane.

Senator-elect Lorimer, of Illinois, announces that he will keep his seat in the House of Representatives till after the Senate passes the tariff bill. Thus he evinces his utter confidence that Senator Aldrich needs no other accomplice.

A writer in the Richmond Times-Dispatch contributes an article entitled "Prohibition and How to Get it." In North Carolina we don't have to worry about "how to get it." We have it thrust on us.

The Hon. Nelson Dingley, author of the Dingley tariff, is in his grave, but Senator Aldrich is bent on substituting the Dingley duties with a tariff bill that will prove a grave matter for us consumers.

Some men who are criticising Senator Simmons for voting for 5 1-2 per cent protection on lumber lay themselves liable to be suspected of doing a little logrolling in their own behalf.

As President Taft has not bounced Secretary MacVeigh from the Cabinet, it shows that the Secretary's speech is at least condoned at the White House.

While New York is regaling us with the divorce trial of the Howard Goulds. Pittsburg will please restrain her envoy and keep the lid on her Hartje case.

We can inhibit but prohibit is something else.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Farming is like everything else—it pays only when managed with judgment. The farmers around Elizabeth City have already sold about $100,000 worth of potatoes this season. Dependence on cotton or any other single crop alone will not make any people prosperous.—Raleigh News and Observer.

—In Eastern and Southern Railway circles there are few more interesting questions just at this time than those regarding the future of the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio Railroad. It is generally recognized that this line has in it the possibility of revolutionizing railroad conditions in the South Atlantic States, and is certainly destined to play a conspicuous part in the development of all this territory.—Spartanburg Herald.

—A correspondent in Sunday's Charlotte Observer declares that Peter Stuart Ney, the remarkable old school teacher, was not Marshal Ney, the brilliant French soldier. Probably not, but there is much sentiment in the idea. By the way, we are told that Oliver Goldsmith, the English novelist and poet, was preparing to ship to this country, his trunk even being shipped to Wilmington, this State. Has anybody ever investigated this romantic idea?—Winston-Salem Journal.

—The talk about the Seaboard Air Line building a short cut from Henderson, through Durham, to some point on the present line south of Raleigh seems to be causing something of a stir in the capital city. Besides shortening the line some 20 miles it would cause a saving of much time to trains in passing through Raleigh. However, the Raleigh Times does not think these are the reasons for the proposed change, but that it is a movement directed against that city; "seems to be a stock deal," it says, "in which certain money powers favorable to Durham are interested." This surmise may be correct, but it is certainly very hard to believe.—Charlotte Observer.

—The word in Iowa is "Go to Canada, young man;" and thousands swarm into the Dominion and voluntarily become subjects of King Edward. The cotton South, even that region of it east of the Mississippi river, is an infinitely more inviting field. The climate is all that can be desired, and the diversity of crops it admits of affords advantages to be found no where else on the North American continent—grain, cotton, the grasses, tobacco, sugar, rice, truck patches, fruits such as peaches, melons, berries figs and in some sections the citrus varieties. Later will come live-stock breeding, dairying and wool growing. Go South, young farmer of the Middle West. Her soil and her sky invite you. So do her people.—Washington Post.

—The editor of The News and Observer is obliged to the Washington correspondent of the Charlotte Observer for nominating him for a seat in the United States Senate. It is a great office, worthy of any man's ambition who desires high official station, but as the editor of The News and Observer has a higher and more useful place where he can better serve the public, he declines with thanks. The editor who becomes a candidate for office lays down the greater for the lesser, even when he wins. The editor who thinks he can render better service than in his calling should retire from journalism and go into the political arena. Political ambition and journailstic usefulness are rarely combined. The News and Observer is, however, deep in politics and so is its editor. Those people who always praise themselves for all their public service then demand big pay for it in the shape of office—such patriots do not understand how any man can zealously and consistently throw himself into party work without wanting an office.—Raleigh News and Observer.

TWINKLINGS.

—Hostess (to visitor)—Do try this chair. It's really quite comfortable for—er—an antique.—The Bystander.

—What Did She Mean—He—I would kiss you if we were not in a canoe. She—Sir! I wish to be taken ashore instantly.—Judge.

—The Court—You will swear that the prisoner stole your umbrella? The Plaintiff—Your Honor, I will swear that he stole the umbrella I was carrying.—Cleveland Leader.

—"I started out on the theory that the world had an opening for me, and I went to find it." "Did you find it?" "Oh, yes. I'm in a hole."—Baltimore American.

—"But, remember, my dear," he said, "that you and I are one." She looked at him scornfully. "One!" she echoed. "Nonsense! We are ten. I'm the one and you are the cipher."—Pathfinder.

—"Dearest Ethel," began the young man, reverently, "you are different from any other girl I ever knew." "In what way?" asked his bride-to-be. "Why—er—you see," he replied, rather at a loss how to proceed, "you accepted me,"—Young's Magazine.

—Two foreigners were watching their first game of baseball the other day. "Dot was a dancherous game, yah?" said the German. "Eet must be, Monsieur," replied the Frenchman. "Why, even ze catcher wears a muzzle to keep him from biting ze people."—Wasp.

—The stricken man constantly moaned the name of the young woman who had jilted him, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer. "Tell her," he said to the medical man, "that her cruelty has killed me. Tell her I am dying from a broken heart." The medical man shook his head. "Aw, go on," he said. "That would be shamefully unprofessional. Your heart's all right. It's your liver that's the trouble."

Lumina Tonight.

Bankers' Dance at Lumina tonight. Everybody going. **

—Charlotte Observer, June 16: Rev. Dr. H. G. Hill, of Maxton, the venerable pastor of the Maxton and Centre Presbyterian churches, who spent yesterday and last night in the city in attendance upon the sessions of the board of regents of Barium Springs Orphanage, is one of the most eminent ministers in the Southern General Assembly. He was asked a few days ago the number of sermons he had preached. After thinking a short time he responded that his recollection as to figures did not go farther back than 1871, but that since that time he had preached, approximately, 4,900 sermons and had delivered something like 2,200 addresses. Dr. Hill is about 77 years of age and is a splendid type of that robust, militant clergy of by-gone days. He has held almost every honor in the gift of his Church, having served as moderator of the Synod of North Carolina and moderator of the General Assembly. For the past 36 years he has been a member of the board of trustees of Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va., and for 36 years he has been chairman of the home missions committee of Fayetteville Presbytery. Dr. Hill, while in the city, was the guest of his friend, Rev. Dr. P. R. Law, at the Central.

The Characteristic National Meal.

It is not only in Scotland that breakfast is the characteristic national meal. Travel where you may, the first meal of the day is the one that strikes the foreign note, luncheon and dinner having gradually absorbed cosmopolitan qualities that are not even confined to hotels. But you never feel so much of an Englishman as when Switzerland gives you rolls and butter and honey and nothing more with your coffee or when France makes this into one exquisite crumbling "croissant," with an inch or two from a yard long loaf, or when Denmark adds cream instead of milk to the coffee and a dangerous piece of pastry to the black bread and round white roll. Yet our English breakfast became an institution only in the eighteenth century. Before that only royalty breakfasted off meat, bread and cheese and ale. The commoner, such as Pepys, took merely a morning draft of buttered ale.—London Chronicle.

Danderine

PROVE IT!

A lady from Minnesota writes: "As a result of using Danderine, my hair is close to five feet in length."

Beautiful Hair at Small Cost

HAIR troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment; when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions.)

The natural thing to do in either case, is to feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

Knowlton's Danderine has a most wonderful effect upon the hair glands and tissues of the scalp. It is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is similar to the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp.

It penetrates the pores quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One 25-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this free coupon to the KNOWLTON DANDERINE CO., CHICAGO, ILL., with their name and address and 10c in silver or stamps to pay postage.

His Best.

The late Sir John Stainer, one of England's most celebrated musicians and composers, was once staying in a small Swiss village, and the English clergyman was on the outlook for a musician to assist at the service. Stainer was in the office of the hotel when the clergyman found him and started the conversation with "Do you play the harmonium?"

"A little," was the reply of the former organist of St. Paul's cathedral.

"Will you, then, be good enough to help us out of our difficulty on Sunday? We will read the Psalms, and the hymns shall be the simplest I can select," added the delighted parson.

"I will do my best," said Stainer, with a smile.

The service proceeded satisfactorily, but the congregation at the close listened to a brilliant recital. When the parson heard the name of his assistant he asked him to dinner. "Do you smoke?" he asked at the close.

"I will do my best," responded Stainer, and the ensuing laughter was the prologue of an entertaining exchange of Oxford reminiscences.

When Boston Shuddered.

"The superior intelligence of Boston continues to excite the envy of her sister cities," recently observed a prominent Bostonian, "and I propose to add fuel to the flame by citing the newest instance thereof. A little boy in the Back Bay district, at whose house occur many meetings of a certain literary club, was asked not long ago by a returned Bostonian what had become of a family named Deering.

"'The Deerings?' said the boy. 'Oh, they're not asked here any more. They're no longer on mother's list.'

"'No longer on the list? What's the matter?'

"'Why, haven't you heard? Drusilla Deering sent a sonnet to the Atlantic that contained twenty lines!'"—Lippincott's.

Making a Bolt For It.

The monotony of crime in the police stations is relieved oftener than is generally supposed by an infusion of unexpected humor. This happy faculty of tickling the magistrate's sense of humor won a prisoner in a police station his liberty the other day.

The prisoner had told the magistrate that he was a locksmith by trade, and the magistrate asked:

"Well, were you on business in this gambling house at 2 o'clock in the morning?"

"Yes, your honor," replied the prisoner calmly. "I was making a bolt for the door."

When Comets Terrified.

To Evelyn a comet was a very terrifying phenomenon. He notes the appearance of one on Jan. 12, 1680, which he describes in his diary as "a meteor of an obscure bright color, very much in shape like the blade of a sword." "What this may portend," he adds, "God only knows, but such another phenomenon I remember to have seen in 1640 about the triall of the greate earle of Strafford, preceding our bloudy rebellion. I pray God avert his judgements."

Marches and Marches.

A schoolteacher in a small town saw some of George Eliot's works displayed in the window of the "general store" and went in to inquire if they had "Middlemarch."

"No, we haven't that," said the red cheeked girl who served as clerk, "but we have lots of others. Will one of Sousa's do?"

Considerate.

Mr. de Club—My dear, a great German physician says women require more sleep than men. Mrs. de C.—Does he? Mr. de C.—Yes. My dear—umer—you'd better not wait up for me tonight.

No Mystery This Time.

Mr. Popp—By gosh, for once in my life I know where my cuff links are. Mrs. P.—Where are they now? Mr. P.—The baby's swallowed 'em!—Cleveland Leader.

It is all right to vote for the country's prosperity, but you must work for your own.—Atchison Globe.

PYTHIAN ORPHANAGE

Greater Wilmington Club Might Well Turn Its Attention to This.

Editor Star: Why not request the K. of P. orphanage to locate near our city. We have as good if not better advantages, as any city or town in the State, good land, good markets for the products produced by the children, good opportunity for the children for positions of all kinds when they become of age. There are as many, if not more, Knights of Pythias in New Hanover as any county in the State and I feel sure they would all feel proud to have their orphanage located here. Let us hear from The Greater Wilmington Club, the Chamber of Commerce, County Commissioners, Mayor and Board of Aldermen as to what we would do to have them here

HAS KILLED 90 BEARS

Son of "Big Tom" Wilson, Also Expert Trapper, Visits Here.

An interesting visitor, Mr. A. G. Wilson, son of the late "Big Tom" Wilson, of Murchison, Yancey county, the latter being known as the most daring mountaineer of his time in this State, has been spending a few days here and like his father has made a phenomenal record as a trapper and bear hunter in the Black Mountain, where he has spent practically his whole life and has killed 90 grizzlies in his time.

Mr. Wilson lives within five and a quarter miles of Mt. Mitchell the highest peak east of the Rockies and his father, it will be recalled, found the body of Dr. Mitchell, who lost his life while exploring on the mountain, which now bears his name. "Big Tom" died about two years ago with the unprecedented record of 114 bears, which he killed in the Black Mountains. His son is fast climbing up to that fine record, and as it is, has no equal in this State. Mr. Wilson killed his last bear last Fall and since he arrived in Wilmington had word from home that another big one ,which he had been after for some time, had been killed by one of his relatives. In his travels in the mountains, he has had fine success, and strange to say he has always been fortunate enough to keep out of reach of these dangerous beasts. He can well be called the "king" of the western trappers and bear hunters.

For a number of years he has been in charge of the Murchison timber land, or Green Pond land, which contains 13,000 acres and is owned by Eastern North Carolina capitalists, a number of whom live in Wilmington. This giant forest is a reserve and contains unusually large specimens of trees, one of which Mr. Wilson says measures 33 feet and 3 inches in circumference. Mr. Wilson has been visiting Mr. J. V. Grainger, Mr. Clayton Giles, Sr., and other friends in Wilmington and with his son Ewart Wilson and nephew, Theodore Wilson, have enjoyed their stay on the seacoast. They left last night for Murchison.

REMAINS TAKEN HOME

Mrs. B. J. Griswold, of Mount Olive, Died Here Tuesday Evening.

The remains of Mrs. B. J. Griswold, whose death occurred Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the home of her grand daughter, Mrs. L. B. Pearce, 207 Grace street, were taken to Mount Olive, home of the deceased, on the 7 o'clock northbound train last night, accompanied by sorrowing relatives. The funeral services will be held at the old homestead, near Mount Olive, at 3 o'clock this afternoon, conducted by Rev. E. E. Rose, pastor of the Mount Olive Methodist Church, the deceased having been a devoted member of that denomination for many years. The interment will take place in the family burying ground.

Mrs. Griswold, who was 83 years old, came here about ten days ago to visit Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Pearce. Her husband died only about three weeks ago and she was just recovering from the shock when she came here to visit. A few days after her arrival she became ill, suffering from a complication of diseases, and on account of her advanced age she sank rapidly in spite of the efforts made to restore her to health again.

The deceased is survived by six sons, Messrs. B. A. and W. J. Griswold, of this city; J. E. and B. L. Griswold, of Mount Olive; R. B. Griswold, of Gulfport, Miss.; G. A. Griswold, Washington, D. C., and two daughters, Mrs. J. J. Powers, of Raleigh, and Mrs. J. M. McGee, of Mount Olive.

WHITE WASH FABRICS.

Hundreds and hundreds of yards of snowy billow white, clear and as spotlessly white as the fleecy clouds which hang over the snow-topped mountains. Sheer white Lawns and Swisses, soft lustrous Madras, and sturdy Suitings, of Flaxon, Linens and Linenes. Beautiful fabrics every one that sound the clarion note of desirability in Summer white stuff. White is always beautiful,always attractive and especially so at this season of the year when the sun nymphs dance on hill and plain. You love beauty, of course you do, then come revel in the beauties of artistic handicraft in beautiful cottons.

WHITE LAWNS.

Nothing ever seems to take the place of white lawn, Winter and Summer alike, but especially when Old Sol hovers overhead it is in great demand.

Its open texture, its sheerness makes it cool and comfortable at all times. Also it stands wear and tear well and for a host of other reasons it is without a peer for shirt waists and similar garments. We have a most complete line, 5c to 25c per yard.

KILLKENY WHITE LINEN SUITINGS
19c Quality Reduced to 12 1-2c.

'Twould be almost like carrying coals to New Castle to describe the beauties and the good qualities of Killkeny Linens to Wilmington women folks. There's not a one who doesn't know of its rugged, never wear out qualities, its ability to meet every test.

For that reason the news of this striking reduction in them should be most welcome. We doubt if they will linger long at the price. If you would save many a dollar toward the vacation fund come early.

WHITE MADRAS.
12 1-2c to 39c.

Madras with its soft, lustrous weave and texture is one of the leading candidates for Miladi's favor. It is here in a host of different weaves and designs ready to tempt with both beauty and price.

Its popularity depends upon its wonderful combination of beauty and strength, its ability to give wear and service. Come look the new stuffs over.

WHITE DOTTED SWISS.

The beauties of the dotted Swiss have been sung in song and story. There seems to be something about this dainty little weave that attracts everyone.

Yet, as one gazes on them, these early Summer days as they lay resplendent in the beauty of early Summer, one soon realizes why they hold so great a charm for even mere man.

The new Summer weaves await you 12 1-2 to 35c.

FLAXON SUITINGS.

The name Flaxon has swept the country from coast to coast and from the lakes to the gulf. Behind everything there is a reason and the reason in this case is thenatural hardihood of the fabric combined with its natural beauty. No sturdier suiting ever left the loom. Certainly none ever looked their worth more. 15c and 25c per yard.

WHITE LINENES.

These hardy imitations are well in the van of popular favor this Summer. They are especially adapted for the tailored waists and suits and similar purposes.

Good sturdy threads, closely woven have formed a fabric which only experts can tell from real linen. If you want a fabric that will stand the hard knocks without showing the least wear, you should buy these white linenes.

tocracy and hospitality in North Carolina for more than a hundred years. In the name of her business men, of her bank, and her fair daughters we bid you be at home among us.

"Her banks and bankers are doubtless well known to all of you, and, in presuming to beguile you from your own fair State, we felt that we were but beckoning to a good neighbor across the street. What geographical location has failed to do our kindred interests, in agriculture and in shipping, have fully accomplished, and we are well acquainted and near related, both in ties of friendship and of business. It is largely through business derived in relations with the South Carolina banks that the aggregate deposits of our own institutions have, in the past five years shown an increase of more than $3,500,000, an amount largely in excess of the gain shown by any other city in this State during the same period. We feel, Mr. President, that we are entertaining not only our very close neighbors, but our sincere friends and as we deal almost as much with you as you deal among yourselves we are in position to add a testimonial to the high character, sagacity and business responsibility of your banks and bankers. Our own State, for many years, has had the advantages of systematic examinations upon the part of a corps of State Bank Examiners. Upon the other hand, it is but a recent innovation that the State banks of South Carolina have been subjected, under your new law, to examinations by bank examiners. Therefore, in bearing testimony to the excellent and honorable manner in which you have preserved the integrity and high standing of your institutions ,through fair weather and foul, we but accredit you with that which is justly due and which is most praiseworthy. You have maintained your integrity and have served faithfully and well the interests of the Palmeto State, of which region we are all proud, and we cannot assure you too often that we are not only glad to have you with us on this occasion, but will confess a secret hope that you may be induced to call again."

Felicitous Response.

At the conclusion of Mr. Evans' remarks President Stackhouse stated that he was sure that the members of the South Carolina Bankers' Association thought Wrightsville Beach the most delightful place to be found anywhere from the fact that this was the largest attendance on the opening session of any convention since the organization. He announced that Mr. R. B. Caldwell, vice president of the Commercial Bank, of Chester, who was to make the response to the address of welcome, was unavoidably absent and his place would be filled by Mr. Wilson G. Harvey, president of the Enterprise Bank, of Charleston, S. C.

The selection of Mr. Harvey was an excellent one for he made a splendid impromptu address, keeping the room in an uproar of laughter a greater portion of the time by his witty sayings. The speaker said, that under the inspiration of the gathering of representative men, commodious hotel, charming music and the light which shown in the eyes of the fair women, the bankers were glad that they were on North Carolina soil and delighted to meet the Wilmingtonians and enjoy their hospitality. He was charmed with the reception given by the Wilmington people and he was certain that he voiced the sentiments of each visitor. For his part the speaker preferred that the business features of the programme be eliminated entirely and give the time over to social pleasures.

Folowing the response Mr. C. N. Evans announced that the officers of the Wilmington banks and their wives would hold a reception in the rear of the hall upon the adjournment of the convention and a hearty invitation was extended to all to attend and meet the visitors. Owing to the lateness of the hour the dance announced to take place was not given, but the reception was a most pleasant occasion for all.

The majority of the bankers arrived so late last night that Secretary Wilson did not attempt to secure a registration, but those present will register on the trip down the river today.

On Board Seminole.

What will doubtless prove one of the greatest features of the convention is the trip down the river and to sea today on the revenue cutter Seminole, which will leave the government dock at 10 o'clock this morning with practically all the bankers and the members of their families aboard. Special cars will be at the Seashore Hotel at 9 o'clock this morning to convey the visitors to the city where they will take the government boat. On board the boat the annual address of the president will be delivered and reports will be received from the secretary and treasurer and from committees. The boat will reach Fort Caswell about 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon and after a thorough inspection of the fort the visitors will take a trip out to sea, returning to the city late in the afternoon.

By direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, Collector of Customs B. F. Keith will accompany the party on the Seminole as an official representative of the Treasury Department and in behalf of that branch of the government will officially receive and welcome the guests for the delightful excursion.

Hon. Chas. H. Treat, who was to have delivered the principal address at tomorrow's session of the convention, will not be able to come and it is expected that Auditor Andrews, of the Treasury Department, will arrive today to fill his place on the programme.

Tonight the visitors will be the guests of the Tidewater Power Company at a big dance given in their honor at Lumina and the event is anticipated with pleasure by the members of the association, both old and young.

The Postal Telegraph Company and the Western Union Telegraph Company have offered to the visiting bankers during their stay in the city and at the beach the free use of their lines. All private messages will be sent without cost and with pleasure.

Mr. Giles L. Wilson, of Spartanburg, secretary and treasurer of the association, and one of the most active financiers of South Carolina, being at present the State Bank Examiner, arrived on the special last evening and began his duties, and in conjunction with Mr. C. N. Evans, aided the bankers who had not made reservations in finding a place to stop. Mr. Edward Crusselle, of Atlanta, Ga., an expert stenographer and bank reporter, is the official reporter of the Association.

Arrival of Visitors.

The visitors began to arrive in the city as early as Tuesday morning, stopping at The Orton and going on to the beach later. All day Tuesday and yesterday the trains entering Wilmington had on board a large number of bankers and before the arrival of the "Bankers' Special" at 8:30 o'clock last evening it was estimated that between 75 and 100 bankers and their wives were on the beach. The number was augmented by 216 bankers and members of their families when the special train from Columbia arrived. The Tidewater Power Company had special suburban cars at the union station for the accommodation of the visitors, who were carried directly to the Seashore Hotel. A committee from the Wilmington Clearing House Association, composed of Mr. C. N. Evans, chairman, and Messrs. C. S. Grainger and Chas. E. Taylor, met the bankers at the station and accompanied them to the beach.

The following named distinguished visitors were the guests of Mr. C. N. Evans, cashier of the Southern National Bank, for a delightful automobile tour of the city yesterday afternoon: Mr. E. E. Rosborough, cashier of Merchants' Bank, Augusta, Ga., and Mrs. Rosborough; Mr. Rufus H. Brown, assistant cashier of the Georgia Railway Bank, of Augusta, Ga., and Mrs. Brown, and Mr. G. L. Groover, cashier of the Citizens' and Southern Bank, of Augusta, Ga. The principal points of interest about the city were visited and the party thoroughly enjoyed the trip.

Among the prominent bankers here from States other than North and South Carolina who arrived yesterday are: Mr. N. P. Gatling, of the Merchants' National Bank, Philadelphia, and secretary and treasurer of the Virginia Bankers' Association; Mr. Lewis, of the National Reserve Bank, of New York; Messrs. Shelton, Augustine and Cunningham, representing respectively the First National Bank, Merchants' National Bank and Bank of Richmond, and Mr. Julian H. Hill, assistant cashier of the National State Bank, of Richmond, Va. The young men from Richmond, Va., are very popular and will add much to the social side of the convention.

Mr. John O. Ellington, of Fayetteville, president of the North Carolina Bankers' Association, arrived in the city last evening. He is being pleasantly greeted by the visitors from over the line. There are quite a number of other North Carolina bankers here to greet the Palmetto brethren among them being Mr. W. C. Wilkerson, of Charlotte, cashier of Merchants and Farmers' National Bank.

Milton Breckenridge Improving.

The condition of Milton Breckenridge, the young white man, who endeavored to take his own life by shooting himself in the mouth and was so seriously hurt, was reported last night as improving. His condition is so favorable that the attending physicians at the hospital will make no effort to remove the bullet for the present.

SALE OF TIDEWATER SECURITIES

Bonds for Development and Growth of Important Local Enterprise.

Through Messrs. Hugh MacRae & Co., the Tidewater Power Company has recently sold and delivered to Messrs. Baker Ayling & Co., bankers, of Boston, Mass., $200,000 of its first mortgage forty-year gold bonds. These bonds are a part of an authorized issue of $2,000,000, and are the first of this issue to be sold. The remaining $1,800,000 are held by the Carnegie Trust Company, of New York, trustee, for the purpose of providing for the future development and growth of the Tidewater Power Company.

This is a transaction of great importance not only to the Tidewater Company, but also to Wilmington, as it insures that this corporation will be in a financial position to take care of all of the needs required by the growth of the city for the next ten years at least, even allowing for the very rapid increase in population which Wilmington has every right to look forward to.

As has been previously noted, the Tidewater Company has just installed a new 1,000 K. W. steam turbine, which is one of the finest in the South, and which more than doubles the capacity and efficiency of the company's power plant. This power plant has been kept thoroughly up to date from the time it was constructed in 1902.

It is a matter of considerable interest to the stockholders of the Tidewater Power Company that the finances of the company are arranged so far in advance, because it adds to the market value of the securities, and insures a steady increase in the earning power of the company as the contemplated expenditures are made.

"LEST YE FORGET."

Says Standard Cuts Prices in Order to Damage Local Competition.

Editor of Star:—The Standard Oil Company is a very big thing compared to which the Cape Fear Oil Company is a very little thing. The latter concern had had its goods on the market only a few days, at the same prices of the former, when the former dropped the price of gasolene one cent per gallon. And yet only a few days more and the price of kerosene oil was cut one cent per gallon. Besides dropping the price of these products one cent per gallon, up to the time of The Cape Fear Oil Co., started in business, the Standard had only one wagon with which to serve the retail trade, except a portion of each year, when it put on an extra tank wagon for half of each day. The Standard Oil now has two all day and every day, and this in the Summer time. These facts are only recited that the retailer and the consumer may sit up and take notice. Before the new concern offered its wares to the public, you had to wait the convenience of the old concern for your goods. Now you don't. Then, sometimes you got your oil when you wanted it, and more often you didn't. Now, you do. Does anybody think for a minute that it is from a desire on the part of the Standard that the consumer or retailer shall get their oil at the lowest possible figure that it cut the prices at this particular time? How many moons has it been since it lowered the price before? And why did it put two wagons on in the Summer time, when there were already two? And why didn't it put two wagons on in the Winter time, when there was only one, and when you needed two? I understand that The Cape Fear Oil Co., is very much pleased with the patronage it has received so far, and my only obejct in writing this is to remind the public of conditions now—and then—and to warn you not to be beguiled away from the concern that has made present conditions possible, by any of the wily tricks for which the Standard is famed. The Cape Fear Oil Co., is composed solely of Wilmington men and is backed solely by Wilmington capital. The Standard has no interest here but the dollars it draws away. When you spend a dollar with the Cape Fear Oil Co., you are spending it with those who helped to make Wilmington what it is, and who are still here helping build up the town. "Lest Ye Forget." B. F. GEORGIA CENTRAL IS SOLD.

Harriman Buys It and Two Steamship Lines.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 16.—The sale of the Central of Georgia Railway to the Illinois Central Railroad, carrying out plans forecasted more than a year ago, was announced today. The transaction originated in negotiations culminating in November, 1907, when the entire capital stock of the Central of Georgia passed into the hands of William Nelson Cromwell and John W. Castles. The purchase, which was announced a few months later, was for E. H. Harriman, whose intention, it was then stated, was to transfer it to the Illinois Central. The price paid by the Illinois Central was not given out.

Announcement of the transfer was made in this city by John F. Hamson, of Atlanta, president of the Central of Georgia. The price paid by Mr. Harriman for the stock, to the par value of $5,000,000 it was stated, was $3,000,000, or at the rate of $60 per share.

The entire capital stock of the Central of Georgia was originally held by the re-organization committee of the Richmond & West Point Terminal Railroad and Warehouse Company. In June 1907, the stock was sold to Oakleigh Thorne, of New York, and Marsden J. Perry, of Providence, R. I., who agreed to retain voting control for at least two years. It was from these gentlemen that Messrs. Cromwell and Castles secured the stock and they sold it to Mr. Harriman.

"TIGER" AND „TIGERESS"

Negro Man and White Woman Tried Before Recorder For Retailing. Man Gets Six Months—No Decision in Woman's Case.

A "blind tiger" and a "blind tigeress," the former colored and the latter white, were the star performers at a rather lengthy and interesting session of the Recorder's court yesterday. Thomas L. James, alias "Lomack," colored, was convicted and sentenced to six months on the roads, from which decision his attorney gave notice of an appeal. The woman defendant was Mrs. Mattie J. Powers and in her case the court reserved decision until today. In the meantime the defendant is occupying a cell in the county jail.

E. S. Cook and J. Vann, white, the former a special employe of the city, who is working up "blind tiger" cases, appeared as witnesses against Lomack and testified that they purchased beer from him at a refreshment stand on Castle street, just outside of the city limits. W. P. Gafford, Esq., attorney for the defendant, wanted the two white women who accompanied Cook on the search for beer summoned but they were not on hand yesterday, having been excused. The Recorder ruled that if they were present they could testify but that he could not stop the trial of the case to wait for their arrival. Mr. Gafford then announced that he had no evidence to offer.

County Attorney Marsden Bellamy opened the argument for the prosecution, being followed by Mr. Gafford, who was severe in his criticism of the witnesses, especially Vann, whose story, he said, could not be believed. Recorder Furlong sentenced the prisoner as above stated.

The witnesses against Mattie J. Powers were Cook and W. C. Horn, both employed by the city for the purpose of running down "blind tigers." L. Clayton Grant, Esq., appeared for the defendant and County Attorney Marsden Bellamy for the prosecution.

After hearing the arguments of counsel the Recorder announced that he would make known his decision at today's session of court when the cases against the other women will be disposed of.

ARE NOT FILIBUSTERERS.

Steamers Nanticoke and Despatch Belong to Venezuela.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 16.—State Department official advices from Venezuela today cleared up the mystery of the steamer Nanticoke and the tug Despatch, suspected of filibustering, showing they were purchased by Venezuela for transportation purposes on Lake Maracaibo. The Department of Justice has ordered its agents to abandon their observations of the vessels and to return to Washington.

On the receipt of these advices, which were from Minister W. W. Russell, transmitted through the State Department, Assistant Secretary McHarg, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, telegraphed to the collector of ports on the middle Atlantic coast to grant clearance papers to the Nanticoke and Despatch on proper application. Instructions also were sent to the revenue cutters to detain the vessels no longer.

The information from Caracas is the result of diligent inquiries made by Minister Russell.

Norfolk, Va., June 16.—Collector of Customs Floyd Hughes was this afternoon directed by telegraphic advices from the Department of Commerce and Labor to issue, upon application, clearance papers for the steamer Nanticoke at Franklin, Va., and the tug Dispatch, at Norfolk. The vessels were cleared for Maracaibo, Venezuela. The Nanticoke is to sail tomorrow from Franklin. The Dispatch will sail from here and join the Nanticoke as the latter comes out of the Chowan river.

They watch the kidneys and cure them when they're sick.

Mrs. M. A. Fowler, 226 S. Front St., Wilmington, N. C., says; "You are at liberty to use my testimonial in return for the great good I received from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. I suffered a great deal from dull, nagging backaches accompanied by pains in my kidneys. My kidneys were also quite weak and I was caused considerable annoyance by irregular passages of the secretions. The contents of one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Robert R. MRS. GOULD'S CONDUCT.

Servants Tell of Her Actions in Divorce Suit Trial.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 16.—Howard Gould did not go on the stand today to testify against his wife, Katherine Clemmons Gould, whose suit for separation he is opposing. Instead there was a continuation of servant's gossip, accounts by menials of their former mistress' eccentricities, humiliating details, as sworn to on the stand, of Mrs. Gould's alleged fondness for alcoholic beverages, and her manner at such times when what, the witnesses said was influence of liquor, brought from her lips remarks that are ill-suited to a woman's tongue.

Indications are that the plaintiff must endure for another day, possibly for two, the embarrassing ordeal of listening to the testimony of former servants, all of whom have been called at the instance of her husband to sustain, if possible his contention that living with his wife was impracticable and decidedly unpleasant, hence that the charge of abandonment, the mainstay of Mrs. Gould's case, is not borne out.

What Katherine Clemmons Gould heard today was but a reiteration, and in some respects an amplification of yesterday's testimony, the basis of which was that at various and divers time at the vast Long Island place "Castle Gould," she had, according to the witnesses, been intoxicated, had abused menials, given arbitrary and unreasonable commands to the servants, and had used rather severe language in altercations with her husband.

CONFERENCE AT ASHEVILLE

Students Hold Association Day—Several Addresses.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Asheville, N. C., June 16.—Today was "Association Day" at the Southern Students' Conference of the Y. M. C. A., an occasion which was featured with a parade of 300 young girls dressed in white and carrying the banners of the various States represented at the convention. The morning session was taken up with the usual routine work. Dr. Samuel Zwemer, of New York City, delivered an address at the platform meeting this afternoon wherein he made a strong appeal for missionary workers in Turkey. He declared that conditions in that country called for increased activity and more volunteers.

Dr. Dwight Pratt, of Cincinnati, discussed "The Power of Personality" at the platform meeting tonight. The success of Christian workers, he said whether at home or abroad, depended largely on the personal life and habits of the missionary.

CASHIER KILLED ASSISTANT

Shot Through Heart By Accidental Discharge of Pistol.

Danville, Va., June 16.—Daniel A. Leftwich assistant cashier of the Bank of Elba, Pittsylvania county, Va., was shot through the heart this afternoon by the accidental discharge of a revolver which Cashier H. A. Hughes was cleaning. Leftwich was instantly killed.

Leftwich and Hughes were alone in the bank at the time ,according to Hughes. He was sitting in a window cleaning his revolver when it discharged, the ball penetrating Leftwich's left side, who was at his desk, death resulting almost immediately.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Advertisers and those of our friends who have notices they desire to appear in any department of the paper are again reminded that under the new schedule of the Seaboard Air Line, reaching a larger proportion of our out-of-town patrons, it is necessary for the paper to go to press each morning nearly two hours earlier than heretofore. Advertisers and other friends are requested to let us handle their copy for them at the earliest possible moment before the date on which it is to be published, else we shall, in justice to our patrons by the early mails, be forced to carry matter over for the following day.

A Compromise.

A struggling art student, a native of Pont Aven, went to Paris to study and occasionally visited an uncle there, an elderly shoemaker on the Rue Vaugirard. The shoemaker was to be counted on for a square meal and sometimes even for a small loan. One morning the uncle welcomed the student far more warmly than was his habit.

"Just in time," he said, rubbing his hands. "The kitchen door wants painting, and I was about to give the job to the commissionnaire for 3 francs. But you can have it now. I'll pay you $5."

The student flushed and bit his lip. Hard up as he was, he could not so degrade his art as to paint a kitchen door. Yet he needed money badly.

"Uncle," he said, smiling as a happy thought came to him, "I'll tell you what to do. Let the commissionnaire paint the door for 3 francs, as you had intended, and give me the 2 francs difference."

—Winston Journal: "How doth the busy little bee improve each passing hour" was shown in Stokes county last week when a man hunting for a bee tree found a keg of honey in a lot of barrels and kegs that had been left by a blockade distiller. The bees had entered the bung-hole of the keg and found it convenient for their purpose.

—Elizabeth City, June 15.—Robert Raison ,a negro truckman, was drowned last night at Barnett's Creek, one of the LeRoy Steamboat Company's landings in Currituck county He had been trucking freight aboard the steamer when sent for a lantern, returning down the plank he fell overboard and drowned before help could reach him. The body was recovered and brought here on the steamer this morning.

—Durham, June 15.—The residence of 15 years here was broken today when Dr. Edwin Mims left for Charlottesville, Va., where he teaches six weeks in the University Summer School. Dr. Mims will not return to Durham. From Charlottesville he goes to Paducah, Ky., for a short visit and then sets sail with Mrs. Mims and the children for a trip of one year abroad. He will not spend a great deal of time in the universities but will travel. Returning a year later he will take up the chair of English of the University.

—Asheville, N. C., June 15.—The State Board of Medical Examiners this afternoon completed its work and announced the successful candidates. There were a total of 120 applicants for license besides those applying under the reciprocity rule and 96 were granted license, including eight negroes and one lady from Texas. The class was led by Branch Craig, of Salisbury, who made an average grade of 95 6-7, with Hubert Benburry Haywood, Jr., of Raleigh, only one-seventh of a point below him, making a grade of 95 5-7. Hubert Gudger, of Asheville, came third with a grade of 93 5-7.

—Charlotte, N. C., June 15.—George Lamont, the white man convicted of the crime of picking pockets, will not serve out the five years' sentence imposed by Judge Council on the roads of the county, but will go to Raleigh instead, and will be kept behind the high and thick walls of the State penitentiary. This change in the manner of serving his sentence was ordered in criminal court this morning by Judge Council. The sending of Lamont to the penitentiary is the result of the belief, shared by many, that if he were kept on the roads and worked as a convict, his friends would have opportunity to come to his relief ,either by quiet means or more daringmethods.

—Morehead City, June 15.—In the presence of a large audience the twenty-sixth annual meeting of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly was begun this evening at 10 o'clock at the Atlantic Hotel assembly room. Dr. D. H. Hill, of the A. and M. College, made the opening address of the meeting and introduced Governor W. W. Kitchin. The Governor did not make a speech but he made a talk that delighted his audience. He told some good jokes and then a number of bouquets. He said he had nothing new or startling to offer along educational lines. His remarks were brief and humorous and they made a hit with the audience.

—Charlotte Observer: The board of regents of Barium Springs Orphanage held two sessions in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church yesterday. There were present Rev. Dr. H. G. Hill, of Maxton, president; Rev. D. I. Craig, of Reidsville, secretary; Mr. P. M. Brown, of Charlotte, treasurer, and Rev. Dr. C. M. Richards ,of Davidson; Mr. A. M. Scales, of Greensboro, and Mr. W. H. Belk, of Charlotte. Rev. oJhn Wakefield, superintendent of the institution, was also present. The most important business transacted was the election of officers, the old board being chosen to serve for the coming year. Mr. William Laurie Hill, editor of The Fatherless Ones, the organ of the institution, and field agent, was also re-elected. The report of those in charge showed that the institution has enjoyed a year of marked prosperity.

—Lexington, June 15.—Selling a horse for board is an unusual scene that has been witnessed in Lexington ,at the courthouse door. "White," a German coach stallion, bought for $3,400 by a local stock company more than a year ago, is the animal. Recently he knocked out an eye in his stall at the livery stable. The livery grew tired of feeding him without remuneration, and so advertised and sold him to the highest bidder, who was Mr. W. E. Holt, Jr., but it is not certain yet that Mr. Holt will claim his horse, because there maybe a law suit over it. It is doubtful if a horse can be made to pay his board under the law, as board-beating white folks and negroes are. The stock company, it is learned, is out all the money paid on the purchase, there being no revenue, and there are still outstanding notes. What the end will be is unforseen.

Women Who Are Envied.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 16.—After early firmness and new high records for the late positions the cotton market weakened in the late trading with the close steady net two points lower to three points higher. The opening was steady at an advance of 3 to 6 points in response to better cables than expected. Excellent weather conditions caused realizing and offerings were very heavy around 10.95 for October. For a time this held the upward movement in check, but the cotton was gradually absorbed by increased commission buying, bull support and covering, which was probably promoted by bullish spot market advices and expectations of a bullish private crop report at 1 o'clock. Before this report was issued the market had sold up to 10.98 for October and 11.04 for December, or 9 to 10 points net higher and at the highest prices reached this season for December and later positions. The expected crop report made the condition as of June 11, 79.4 per cent. against the government's report of 81.1 per cent., as of May 25, the deterioration being attributed to excessive moisture ,particularly in the central belt. It seemed, however, that this report had been discounted by the previous advance ,and during the last hour realizing became general with prices reaching the lowest level of the day. The close was only a point or two up from the bottom. Southern spot markets officially reported early were unchanged to 1-8c higher. Receipts are running much smaller and many reports are bieng received indicating that the amount of unsold cotton in the South is now very small.

Receipts at the ports today 4,161 bales against 10,647 last week and 9,956 last year; for the week 35,000 bales against 54,323 last week and 53,997 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 1,447 bales against 4,588 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 11:40; middling gulf 11.65. Futures opened and closed steady.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 16.—The dry goods market was steady and firm during the day with quiet prevailing on spot transactions. Spring staple hosiery is offered at 2c a dozen advance over last spring opening prices. Underwear prices are irregular. Cotton goods are very firm and cotton yarns show some improvement in tone. Silk piece goods of a staple character are very quiet in the preliminary market. Novelties are well under order.

MARKET GOSSIP.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 16.—The unsettlement in the stock market proceeded to such a length today as to bring out forcible measures for the protection of prices from great banking interests. United States Steel was the center of the disturbance and activity. Reports from Paris overnight seemed to confirm the rumor that the effort to secure the admission of United States Steel to the Paris bourse had failed through the refusal of the government official whose consent is necessary. The disturbing effect of this report and the acute weakness of United States Steel particularly was partly counteracted by powerful buying orders for the stock designed to support the price and by renewed assurances from J. P. Morgan & Co., of their confidence that the plan for introducing United States Steel to the Paris bourse, while delayed and encountering some opposition, would be carried out. The open pressure on the steel shares, however, forced them down to 65 7-8, whihc is 1 3-8c lower than yesterday's closing price and four points below the high level touched on Monday. The whole list showed sharp declines during the morning. The professional bear organization, which came into prominence yesterday was active again. The support which checked the decline in itself put a stop to much of the selling and the scramble of the bears to cover aided materially in the purpose of those seeking to protect prices.

The effect of the Paris news on United States Steel was enhanced by reports of a determination of tin plate workers with the corporation to strike. The expected message of President Taft which proved to have been quite accurately outlined in the news, was dwelt on by some of the sellers of stocks as a possible opening for a renewed agitation in Congress on the whole subject of corporation control.

A decline in copper in London and at the New York Metal exchange worked towards depression of speculative sentiment. A spurt in Reading to above 155 was the sustaining factor in the late dealings but it was not announced until after the market had closed that the dividend on the stock had been left unchanged. The closing tone was irregular.

Bonds were easy. Total sales equalled $4,894,000. United States bonds unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today were 931,900 shares.

BASE BALL

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Pittsburg, Pa., June 16.—John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, and "Bugs" Raymond, the eccentric pitcher of the same ball club, had a rough and tumble argument while en route from Cincinnati to this city early today. It is said McGraw reprimanded Raymond for the latter's personal conduct while in Cincinnati.

McGraw today said: "Raymond got a little 'strong' on the train and needed correction. I didn't want to fine him, so I just administered a little chastisement."

Raymond, who carries a split lip as a result of the encounter, says the mix came after McGraw had jumped on him without provocation and choked off his wind. The two men appeared on the ball grounds this afternoon apparently reconciled.

National League.

Chicago, June 16.—Chicago second successive world's championship pennant was hoisted today after a parade of both teams, headed by a brass band. Just before reaching the top of the high pole, however, the rope pulley broke, and the elegant emblem blew away back of the bleachers in center field. Ignoring the evil omen, Chicago went in and won by bunching four hits in the second inning.

A Thrilling Rescue.

How Bert R. Lean, of Cheny, Wash. was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A hard cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that baffled an expert doctor here. Then I paid $10 to $15 a visit to a lung specialist in Spokane, who did not help me. Then I went to California, but without benefit. At last I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me and now I am as well as ever." For Lung Trouble, Bronchitis, Coughs and Colds, Asthma, Croup and Whooping Cough its supreme. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

ON A DOUBLEHEADER

Crockett was out at first unassisted. For Wilmington after Jayes and Sexton were out, Conn was safe on error of second, Nichols drew a pass but Brodie flew out to right. In the seventh it was one, two, three for Goldsboro and for Wilmington Smith got an infield hit but spoiled it by trying to steal second; Levy beat out a bunt, Sharp and Kite retiring the side by fly-outs to centre and foul to catcher.

In the eighth Wilmington added four more when Jayes led off with a single to left, was sacrificed by Sexton and Conn drew a pass. Then Nichols singled to centre filling the bases and Brodie drew a pass forcing Jayes home; Smith hit to left, who muffed and Conn and Nichols scored while the Oriole was caught at the home plate; Levy then hit to short who threw wild and Smith scored; Sharp was out, second to first. In Goldsboro's eighth Deviney led with a single to left; Smith was safe on error of Nichols; Gettig popped out to Sharp and Deviney scored on Steinbach's hit; Crockett flew out to right and Doak fanned. The ninth was productive of goose eggs and in great confusion the teams left the field just as darkness overspread the field.

Double-header at Wilson.

Wilson, N. C., June 16.—In a double-header this afternoon, between the top-notcher and the tailender teams, Wilson and Fayetteville, the local team defeated the visitors in the first game by a score of 2 to 1. In the second, nine innings were played by both sides without a score, after which, on account of darkness the game was called. Both teams from start to finish played big league ball and the Wilson fans are free to admit that Fayetteville will give somebody trouble before the season is over.

Indian in Box at Raleigh.

Raleigh, N. C., June 16.—In a game replete with sensational plays and exceptionally good fielding stunts Rocky Mount defeated Raleigh this afternoon 4 to 2. Thorpe, the Indian, was in the box for Rocky Mount. He was a shade off in the first two innings, but for the remaining seven not a hit was made off him.

"SMILES."

Now for a fricasse today.

There certainly was no hit famine.

Sexton tolled the death knell of the Giants in the second!

Anyone a non-member of the Swatters' Union was a rank outsider.

We didn't want to be porkish and leave town with all three games.

For an improvised team, with an informal make-up, the boys were playing ball—and then some.

Raleigh has released Murray, who has been taken on by Rocky Mount.

There were no insects on Wysong's heaving, but you couldn't expect a win with that display of errors behind him.

Goldsboro came near kalsomining us in the first, owing to jaundiced work of the error variety—but then there were two games.

The Sailors couldn't have trimmed their batting lamps for the first contest, though they were burning brightly all right before the day was over.

Now weren't we ringing up the bingles in that last game; those four for extra bases in the second inning must have created some slight excitement in Goldsboro-town.

The Highlanders played Wilson to a standstill in their last game, whacking Andy's tainted offerings for a few more safeties than their own man, Watters, allowed. It's a pity darkness put an end to the affair.

Teacher told us "Argus" came down from Grecian Mythology ,and meant All Seeing, but this seems to have been all Greek to the Editor of that sheet who made the pugnacious prognostication that Wilmington would drop about all three to Goldsboro.

Three Carlisle Indians have located their tepees in Rocky Mount and donned the war-bonnets of the Railroad Tribe. One of the number, Thorpe, twirled in yesterday's game against Raleigh and brought the Red Birds down time and time again with his trusty bow.

The "News and Observer" doper remarks that McLaughlin has given entire satisfaction in that territory, and is about the best that ever fisted an indicator there; further observing there is nothing wrong with his umpiring, but maybe that's because he's not in a kicking town. We pass; it's Goldsboro's say!
